LIGHT READING

FOR SUMMER LEISURE.

Mr. George Jacob Holyoke's entertaining papers descriptive of his visit "Among the Americans," which were contributed to The Cooperative News, have been reprinted by Belvoir, Clarke & Co., of Chicago, who voluntarily agree to share the profits with the author. The volume gives abundant evidence that Mr. Holyoke was not displeased with his reception in this country. He takes a friendly, appreciative view of our new civilization, whose progress evidently awakened his surprise, and, to a sufficient extent, his admiration. In his preface to the American edition, Mr. Holyoke draws a humorous picture of his conservative countrymen, and says a pleasant word for America.

John Bull, in his solid, bovine way, does make steady progress at home. But his dietary, though pretentious, is not very stimulating, and takes a long time in chewing the end of progress. Like the oxen of Troy, he stands meditating over the hedge of his verdant little island, looking as though he were going to do something, and doing nothing.
